

AIDE-MEMOIRE FOR EVALUATION AND REVALIDATION

This Aide-Memoire consists of questions and prompts to assist panel members in their consideration of the appropriateness of the course or subject, or courses or subject within a revalidation unit, to the University's objectives and the standards for the award(s). It is also available to course/subject teams to aid their preparation, for the event.

The questions and prompts are set out in the order of presentation of validation documentation. They supplement the topics identified in the Guidelines for evaluation and revalidation panels. They are neither exhaustive nor prescriptive. Some questions are those previously used by QAA academic reviewers and draw on the UK Quality Code for Higher Education. Certain questions will be more valuable to external subject experts, others to internal University members conversant with University policies and processes.

Strengths, good practice, innovation and other aspects for commendation should be emphasised.

SECTION A: INTRODUCTION (SUBJECT AND PROGRAMME CONTEXT)
A1	Rationale and Origins	Academic Planning Advisory Group has already considered questions of demand and viability before permitting a new proposal to proceed, and monitoring of the Academic Plan should ensure that only viable courses are presented for revalidation. Do you have a clear view of why the course(s) are provided? Do the course(s) fit with the University's strategic aims and objectives? Do they satisfy the general criteria identified in the Guidelines? If a course is only available full-time, would part-time mode be feasible?
COMMENTS
A2	Projected intakes
COMMENTS
A3	Contextualised Research and Analysis: Standards and Quality Indicators	What has the team's approach been to fulfilling the expectations about standards set out in the relevant subject benchmark statement? Are these met? Does each course meet the criteria for its associated award as defined in the University's qualifications and credit framework, reflecting the specification in the national Framework for Higher Education Qualifications? Are the relevant PSRB requirements addressed? If applicable, is fitness to practise achieved? Have any concerns raised by external examiners been addressed? If necessary, have the reasons for particular entry standards, requirements or competences been explained? (See also B3 regulations.) How have the quality indicators (course, learner, employability analytics) informed curriculum (re) design?
COMMENTS
A4	Stakeholder Engagement: PSRBs Graduate Qualities Academic Excellence and Research-based Teaching	How have appropriate stakeholders been involved in programme(s) design and development? Are student and employer needs (regionally, nationally and internationally) and, as appropriate, government policy on skills adequately reflected? Is there evidence that relevant and worthwhile careers will be available to new graduates? Are there appropriate working relations between the course/subject team and the relevant PSRBs? Has the team identified appropriate attributes and skills, including critical thinking, which meet the University's broad expectations as set out in the Statement of Graduate Qualities and their discipline reference points? Are these integrated into learning and teaching and assessment processes? How will graduates be able to demonstrate them? The University expects courses to be underpinned by current and appropriate discipline-specific and pedagogic research and scholarship (and professional activity where appropriate). Is there evidence of this?

		Has there been participation in curriculum development activity (e.g. Advance HE/ Higher Education Academy projects or with the University's Centre for Higher Education Research and Practice or Office for Digital Learning)?
COMMENTS
A5	Revisions (Revalidation only) and Innovations	Is the summary of recent and proposed revisions sufficient? Is the rationale for proposed changes clear and are the changes appropriate? (Revalidation only). Is there evidence of creativity and innovation in curriculum design and delivery? This should take account, as appropriate, of course, school, faculty, University and national initiatives and identified stakeholders' needs. Consider engagement with the Centre for Higher Education Research and Practice, Office for Digital Learning, Jisc and Advance HE/Higher Education Academy.

SECTION B: THE PROGRAMME(S)
B1	Programme Design Commentaries
B1.1	Subject/Course Philosophy	Is it evident that the course philosophy is 'owned' by the team? Is it visible in the design of programme(s) and modules? How are global citizenship, education for sustainable development, internationalisation integrated into the design of the programme(s)? (Guidance in Graduate Qualities and Principles underpinning the Student Experience [Appendix 15]; TLC/13/14; and from Global Engagement Department.)
COMMENTS
B1.2	Course Structure, Progression, Coherence, Choice Structure diagrams Transfer (to and from other programmes of study and opportunities for progression to further study)	Is there coherence within the course/strand? Are the choice of modules and their level and sequence appropriate? Is academic progression and integration between and within levels in the programme evident? Is there sufficient underpinning? Are adequate and meaningful opportunities for choice provided? Are the expectations for any exit points adequately addressed? Do they represent coherent programmes of study? If needed (multiple entry points, pathways), are there diagrams to illustrate sequencing of modules? Are modules located in the appropriate semester and year? Are modules correctly designated as compulsory or optional? Does the study load, by mode, meet the University's norms? Taking account of module sizes, is the overall structure and workload balanced and reasonable? Has a sound rationale been given for modules smaller than 20 credit points? How flexible is the part-time mode? Are the modules shared with other programmes? Are adequate and meaningful opportunities for transfer to and from other courses available? Has the articulation been clearly addressed?
COMMENTS
B1.3	Student support and guidance Induction Study skills	Are the learning and teaching methods varied? In undergraduate courses are they responsive to the range of entry qualifications? How has the course team facilitated opportunities to build communities and foster a sense of belonging? Does the strategy clearly articulate the induction process for each level? Does induction effectively support the transition into, through and beyond HE? How are the specific requirements of students with disabilities and others with particular needs, as recognised under the Special Educational Needs and Disability (NI) Order, addressed and supported? Do Advisers of Studies and other staff engage with student support professionals? Do the expectations for attendance support student learning, particularly in year 1 of undergraduate courses, where attendance is a key requirement for success. How is attendance monitored? Is monitoring effective? How are issues of retention addressed? Do the induction and transition processes meet the expectations of the University's guidance? Are the arrangements for induction effective? Does the development of study skills include self-assessment skills? Are there opportunities for students to reflect on, and take responsibility for their own learning? How are HE study, writing and referencing skills developed? Is the development of academic skills (including learning to learn in higher education and enquiry and

		information literacy skills) embedded as an integral and integrated part of the first year full-time undergraduate curriculum as a minimum? What approaches are adopted for large groups, small groups, practical sessions? How is student participation achieved? Does the assessment strategy have an adequate formative function in developing student abilities? Does the assessment strategy in year 1 of undergraduate courses explicitly promote the effective adoption of HE learning habits and standards? Does it include early and regular evaluation of student performance and explicit assessment of learning to learn and subject-relevant study skills in the first year in accordance with University policy?
COMMENTS
B1.4	Information Literacy and Digital Capabilities	How are information literacy skills embedded and progressively developed across the programme levels? Has the Library been involved? Do the assessment tasks develop ICT proficiency and skills?
COMMENTS
B1.5	Learning and Teaching Strategy	Does this section provide an overview of key learning and teaching pedagogy/approaches, which would demonstrate effectiveness in promoting student learning and the achievement of the intended learning outcomes and the effective delivery of the curriculum? Is there evidence of compliance with University, Faculty and School policies and priorities in relation to learning and teaching, including the guidelines for first year teaching, and the development of Graduate Qualities? Are the learning and teaching delivery methods varied, promoting inclusivity for all students? Do the learning and teaching methods make use of innovative learning technologies? What learning approaches and teaching methods are adopted for large groups, small groups, practical sessions? How is student participation achieved? Is use made of group work and e-learning? If not, would they be beneficial? For substantial fully online provision, is there a comprehensive digital learning course management plan, drawn up in consultation with the Office for Digital Learning to meet the Quality Precepts for Digital Learning?
COMMENTS
B1.6	Assessment Strategy	Is there evidence of compliance with the University/Faculty/School policies in relation to assessment? Does the assessment strategy give confidence that achievement of the intended learning outcomes will be tested and measured? Does the strategy provide adequate safeguards of validity and reliability and fairness? Is there a range of assessment methods? Are they appropriate to the learning outcomes? Will they be effective in judging achievement? Does the assessment facilitate a progressive development path across modules and levels? Do the assessment criteria enable examiners and students to distinguish between different categories of achievement (mark bands) for the level of the module and the award? The assessment of individual student performance in group work is a concern. The University has agreed that in a module which contributes to an award classification, normally at least 25% of each student's assessment result in group work should be based on his or her individual contribution (June 2010). What is the course team's approach to the assessment of group work? Is best practice, as referenced in the University's Assessment Handbook, adopted? What approaches are taken to such matters as moderation (including for placement), double marking and anonymous marking of coursework? Does the assessment strategy have an adequate formative function in developing student abilities? Is the load equitable and consistent? Are the deadlines for submission of assignments across the course manageable for students? What feedback arrangements are in place? Are they clearly articulated at course and module levels? Are they timely? Are they appropriate and effective for the type of assessment and student group?
	Note that the team provides exemplar assessment schedules to show in each semester or year the types of assessment, weighting of and indicative timing and

B4	Module Descriptions (For each module) CHERP has developed guidance on module design, including writing learning outcomes, reading lists, assessment briefs, criteria and rubrics. ulster.ac.uk/cherp/academic-development Course teams upload in a supplementary document assessment rubrics for each module.	Does the module title adequately reflect the content? Is the credit level properly assigned? Is it reflected in the outcomes? Do the taught modules meet the University's acceptable sizes (any multiples of 5 from 10 credit points)? Has a sound rationale been given for modules smaller than 20 credit points (a curriculum design principle)? Do the credit points accord with the notional student effort hours (10 hours = 1 credit point)? Do the hours give an adequate breakdown between the different forms of teaching used and independent study? Is there a clear relationship between module rationale, aims and learning outcomes and those of the course? Are the design and organisation of the curriculum effective in promoting student learning and achievement of the intended learning outcomes and the fulfilment of Graduate Qualities and the Student Experience Principles including employability, global citizenship, education for sustainable development, internationalisation (see B1.1, 1.7)? Does the curriculum embed the development of academic skills (including learning to learn in higher education initial enquiring developed?) as an integral and integrated part of the first year (full-time) as a minimum? Are study skills explicitly assessed in accordance with University policy? Are the learning and teaching and assessment methods appropriate to the intended learning outcomes at the level of the module? Is the curriculum content appropriate for the objectives of the module and course? Will it encourage the achievement of the knowledge, understanding, skills and other qualities identified? Is it current and relevant? Is it informed by current research and scholarship (including the research interests of staff), the subject benchmarks, and any changes in the relevant occupational or professional requirements? In an Honours degree in accordance with University expectation, is there a sustained project or dissertation module? Are the arrangements for project/dissertation supervision adequate? Do the specific assessment criteria meet the University's generic level criteria as stated in the Assessment Handbook? Is the assessment weighting between coursework and examination appropriate? Is the rationale for different assessment weightings between modules sound? Are there more than two items of assessment? (An item may include more than one component (such as in a portfolio) but the overall item will have a single mark.) Has a case been made to depart from this curriculum design principle? Is sufficient information provided about the forms of assessment (e.g. duration and format of examination, length of assignment, summary assessment criteria/ marking scheme)? Is there equity and consistency in assessment, taking account of the University's workload equivalence guide for word counts (2018)? There should be approximately 2000 words (or equivalent) per 10 credit points. Are they appropriate for their diagnostic, formative and/or summative purposes? Does the assessment meet the University's Principles of Assessment and Feedback for Learning? Where a word limit is set, do penalties follow University's policy (2018)? Does the assessment of group work ensure that individual student achievement is recognised? The University expects that at least 25% of each student's assessment result in group work is based on his/her individual contribution in modules contributing to a final award, and significantly more where modules are wholly or mostly assessed by group work. What are the arrangements for moderation and external examining of work-based learning/placement? Are the reading lists and other sources of information appropriate? Are the texts current editions? Are they available in the Library? Are the texts appropriately identified as required or recommended reading? Is the amount of reading realistic?

SECTION C: RESOURCES
C1	Physical	Are the physical resources (general and specialist accommodation, laboratory equipment, library, IT) available sufficient to ensure the successful delivery of the course(s), for the cohort size? Is there a renewal/updating policy for equipment?

		Comment on the general appearance/condition of buildings and classrooms. Are there adequate study facilities for students?
COMMENTS
C2	Staff	Are the staff sufficiently qualified and experienced to deliver the course successfully at its qualification level? Is there appropriate expertise? Is there evidence of research or scholarship in staff profiles?
C2.1	Summary and CVs ulster.ac.uk/cherp/academic-development	Are the staff numbers adequate? What is the balance between full-time and part-time staff? Will part-time contracts allow sufficient time to undertake expected duties? What arrangements are there for induction and mentoring of new staff? Have all recently appointed teaching staff received academic induction in line with University policy? Is there sound leadership in the course/subject and module teams? Are you confident that the staff can work together as an effective team? Is there adequate technical, administrative and other support staff? Is there a staff development plan? Will it contribute to the enhancement of teaching? What use is made of Peer Observation and Peer-Supported Review? How many staff have undertaken the University's Postgraduate Certificate and/or MEd in Higher Education Practice or are otherwise qualified in teaching in higher education?
COMMENTS
C2.2	Summary matrix (revalidation)	Does the matrix match the information in module descriptions?
COMMENTS
C2.3	Part-time staff, PTAs and recognised teachers	Is adequate support provided for postgraduate teaching assistants and demonstrators, part-time lecturers and recognised teachers and their integration into the team?

INSTITUTIONAL ADMINISTRATION
Joint courses or networks		For a joint course or course which is delivered in a network of partners, how effective are the arrangements for its operation? Consider such matters as curriculum development, meetings of network members, staff development, assessment arrangements. Good practice includes forward planning with annual meetings including course directors and lead module co-ordinators built into a calendar of events; identification of lead module co-ordinators; possible meeting of module teams; common external examiner(s); internal cross-moderation; common timing for shared examinations; common examination board as permitted by University; co-ordination of revisions; consideration of student views across all partners; common template for course handbook.
COMMENTS
DOCUMENTATION		Is the documentation clearly presented and easy to follow? Is it generally free from typographical errors and spelling mistakes? Is the pagination and indexing accurate? Are relevant sections cross-referenced? Have the relevant University templates been used? Have assessment rubrics been provided?
