

Shevlin, Boyle and Murphy attend the 'Mapping Population Data using QGIS' workshop organised by the Northern Ireland Longitudinal Survey (NILS) Research Forum on Thursday 22nd March 2018.

Using settlement band data a map of antidepressant prescribing was produced. A prescribing map at the super output level is planned when the data is available.

