Micro-Placements Programme: C
YOU MUST READ AND SIGN THE FOLLOWING CODE OF CONDUCT.

Edit

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

By signing this document, you agree to maintain a professional attitude and behaviour at all stages of the Micro-Placements Programme. This encompasses treating all stakeholders fairly and with respect regardless of their gender, religion, sexual orientation, age, race, background or disability.

Under no circumstances shall you use inappropriate or offensive language towards City, University of London (City) staff, employers or fellow Micro-Placements students.

Please raise any concerns or problems during the Micro-Placements process immediately with the Micro-Placements Programme Team so that they can deal with the situation accordingly. You should direct your initial query via email to the team. Please see the details at the bottom of the page.

COMMUNICATION

You are required to communicate promptly and in a professional, respectful, coherent and comprehensive manner at all times. This applies to all forms of communication (in person, via email and on the phone) to any kind of audience (City staff, employers and fellow students). Failure to comply with this will not be tolerated and may result in the loss of your place on the Programme.

You are required to monitor your City email inbox regularly and to respond to communications from the Micro-Placements Team in a timely manner i.e. within 3 working days unless stipulated otherwise.

CAREER EXPLORATION

You acknowledge that the main principle of the Micro-Placements Programme is Career Exploration. It is defined as gaining professional experience in a sector different from the one traditionally associated with the degree you are studying.

You are required to show flexibility in terms of accepting projects offered on the Micro-Placements Programme and an in-depth understanding of the concept of Career Exploration.

THE MICRO-PLACEMENT

Your Micro-Placement project will take place between June and August 2019 in Greater London. In exceptional circumstances, the Micro-Placements Team reserves the right to offer placements outside this timeframe and location upon sufficient notice.

You acknowledge that when on a Micro-Placement, you will adhere to terms and conditions outlined in the Standard Micro-Placements Programme Agreement, which you will be required to sign the Agreement prior to starting your placement. Details will be provided should you progress onto this stage.*

FINAL ASSESSMENT*

You acknowledge that in a case when you secure and successfully complete a Micro-Placement project, you will be required to complete a submission on Moodle (details will be provided should you progress onto this stage). Failure to do so will result in the Micro-Placement Programme being marked as a failed non-credit bearing module on your final grades transcript.

SHARING PERSONAL DETAILS

By submitting the Expression of Interest form, you agree to share your personal details with the Micro-Placements Programme Team.

By taking part in the Micro-Placements Programme, you agree to have your personal details shared with the potential host employers as a part of the selection process.

REVIEW OF AGREEMENT

The Micro-Placements Team reserves the right to introduce amendments to this Code of Conduct at any time. You will be notified of such changes and required to sign an appendix if additional provisions are added to the document.

Please note that any infringement of the Code of Conduct or any behaviour deemed unsuitable or inappropriate will be acted upon accordingly and which may include issuing warnings as described below, and may ultimately result in the loss of your place on the Programme.

WARNINGS

If you receive one warning, you will be sent an email and given a warning flag. If the breach is significant enough, you will be invited to a meeting with the Micro-Placements Team to discuss your performance on the Programme.

Receiving a second warning will result in the loss of your place on the Micro-Placements Programme. This will be a final warning which will be communicated to you via email.

The Micro-Placements Team will contact your personal tutor to notify them of the warning/s should they be issued. If the breach of the Code of Conduct is severe enough, we reserve the right to contact your Course Director to proceed with further disciplinary actions.

Please contact the Micro-Placements Programme Team via email should you have any questions about the Code of Conduct.

Email: Micro-Placements@city.ac.uk

*Please note that certain sections of this Code of Conduct will apply only if you are successful at relevant steps of the selection process.
