

3.4 Remuneration

Academic and Related Staff

Salaries are paid in arrears in equal monthly instalments on or before the last day of each month and payment is normally made by bank credit. The normal incremental date is 1st October each year except that those appointed after 1st April will receive their first subsequent increment on 1st October of the following year. Fixed-term appointees will receive an increment on the anniversary of their appointment (if appropriate).

Technical and Clerical Staff

Salaries are paid in arrears in equal monthly instalments on or before the last day of each month and payment is normally made by bank credit. The normal incremental date is 1st February each year except that those appointed after 1st August will receive their first subsequent increment on 1st February of the following year. Fixed-term appointees will receive an increment on the anniversary of their appointment (if appropriate).